STUDENT COUNCIL

The institution takes care in promoting the students to acquire leadership qualities. The students are facilitated to take active part in the regular functioning, policy making, administration, etc. The students' council is part of the academic set up of the institution which is constituted and installed every academic year. It includes office bearers namely President, Vice President, Secretary, Fine Arts Secretary, Sports Secretary, N.S.S Secretary and class representatives. They design and plan the students' academic activities of the institution.

They organize various functions and academic programmes, and maintain the records. The College Day is celebrated at the end of the academic year involving students' council. A student is nominated to represent the IQAC, who also takes active part in various roles and functioning of the IQAC. The President, Vice-President, and Secretary take part in academic affairs, welfare measures and organizing functions.

Students represent and actively participate in various committees such as Fine Arts Association, Sports and Games Committee, Hostel Committee, WECAN, Students' EXNORA, Anti Ragging Committee, National Service Scheme, National Cadet Corps, Youth Red Cross, Rotaract, Red Ribbon Club, etc. The Sports Secretary and her team help in the identification of students' talents in sports and games, and assist the Physical Directress in the process of selection of students for various teams. She facilitates the players to participate in competition at various levels.

The institution organizes cultural competitions in the name of STET FIESTA. The Fine Arts Secretary shoulder the responsibility of organizing such programmes in collaboration with the Fine Arts Co-ordinator, and assists in selecting the students for various fine arts and cultural events, and participates in training and grooming the students.

The NSS secretary with NSS Coordinator assesses the sociological needs and problems. They enroll the students for NSS, create awareness on such problems and train the students to address the problems, and schedule and execute the programmes.

All the departments have students' club such as, STET Economists club, Literary club, Commerce Association, BIODIA, IT Park, ROBERTKOCH, ORIONTECH, HYPATIA, OPTO, OPAL, PARKERS, NUTRAPLEX, CURIE and 'Painthamizh Sangam'. Each Club is run by the student office bearers and the activities are managed only by the students. Each department publishes Newsletter, which is edited by student editors. Students are given opportunities to take active role in the WeCan "Earn While You Learn" scheme, Part V activities, Anti Ragging committee, and various statutory and non-statutory bodies of the institution. They are also given equal opportunity to expose their skills in various activities. Hostel is providing boarding and lodging for about 521 students. Dividing system is followed in the hostel. Students are fully involved in hostel management. There are various committees that are constituted to look after the daily menu, stores, cleanliness, purchase of provisions, discipline, accounts, etc. They ensure the effective functioning of the hostel.

Thus, the institution facilitates the students to have students' council and to involve them to create a conducive academic environment not only to enrich their academic knowledge but also to groom social responsibility and leadership qualities.
