

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT CELL (R&D)

Research and Development cell aims to nurture the research culture in the college by providing research in newly emerging and challenging area. The college aims to have research Centre to enhance the faculty and students in research on emerging areas. This would boost up the activity on research in the institution. The cell will monitor and evaluate the candidate admitted for research programme. R and D cell regularly conducting workshop for final year PG students on SPSS package and how to write research articles and publish in reputed journals. 08 book chapters were published by faculty members of Business Administration. 72 Research articles were published in reputed UGC care list of Journal and Scopus Indexed Journal by the research scholars and faculty members. 05 members of the faculty and 02 research scholars were awarded Ph.D., from Microbiology, Biochemistry and Computer Science. 02 Ph.D. thesis were submitted by Research scholars. 09 Research Scholars registered their Ph.D., Faculty members presented papers in international and national level seminars / Conference and symposia sponsored by funding agencies. New Memorandum of Understanding (MoUs) was signed by the Departments of English, Business Administration, Management studies, Computer Science and Computer Application.